DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to my parents, Marcus Briles and Lottie Smith Briles. My parents were dedicated to the Church, family, and community. My Father was known far and wide for his knowledge of the Bible.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The early history of Mount Gilead has been handed down by word of mouth, mostly by what my Father told me and other writings.

We appreciate Carl Crotts, at the age of 84, with a very keen mind, who has been very helpful in my endeavor and to the late R.C. Welborn, for the valuable information he left for us.

We are aware that much of our history has been lost. Should anything be found, please let us have a copy. We will perserve for future publications.

This book, published in 1991, taking 3 years to prepare, is the first history written on Mount Gilead United Methodist Church.

THE START OF THE METHODIST

It started in Brittain in the 17th century, leaped the Atlantic and caught on in North America. It then became a denomination across the new country and came to fruition in Western North Carolina.

It was by Mr. George Whitefield, a famous English evangelist, that this came about. He made many trips to America. He then found John Wesley, who petitioned him for missionarys to be sent as leaders. By 1784, a lot of NC had joined this far reaching denomination.

The Methodist Episcopal Church was organized as one of the first denominations following the Revolutionary War.

Early branches of Methodists had been participants in the NC Council of Churches. They supplied funds and much leadership. Two of those leaders were Rev. Williams and Mr. William Peele, who later became Bishops.

The Methodist had three branches in 1939. The Methodist Episcopal Church, The Methodist Protestant Church, and The Methodist Episcopal South. All merged to form the Methodist Church. At that time, it was known as the High Point, Mt. Vernon, and Mt. Gilead Charge.

The Methodist Church took a giant step in ecumenism in 1968. It added the name United. When it joined with the Evangelical United Brethern Church to form a new denomination. it became The United Methodist Church.

TRINITY and DUKE

Trinity was started as Brown School in 1832, operated by Rev. Brantley York. This became a private academy in 1839 and in 1851, a Normal College, which began training teachers in cooperation with the state. In 1856, under Rev. Baxter Craven's administration, it became Trinity College, affiliated with the North Carolina Conference.

Mr. Craven married Irene Leach, who was lovingly called, "The Mother of Trinity College".

The name Trinity, for Methodist Church College, was selected by Rev. Baxter Craven, "Enudito Relegio".

The battle of academic freedom was fought at Trinity College and won long before Duke University developed around it. The significance of the two hundred foot tower at the heart of the University is in ^{no} way deminished by this freedom. Today there stands a gazibo in its honor.

First Trinity College left its name to a community and its influence on the lives of those students who were priviliged to attend there. The people of Trinity opposed the removal of the college to Durham.

In 1890, it joined the Western North Carolina Conference. In 1924, under President William Preston, an endowment of $40,000. was made by James B. Duke and the University was born. The United Methodist Churches are proud to claim Duke University as its own.

When Duke University Divinity School celebrated its fifteth anniversary in 1976, nearly eighty faculty members had served the school andd approximately 3,500 had been enrolled. Dean Robert E. Cushman, in addressing the celebration, affirmed that the basic approach to study theology at Duke was found in the Words of Augustine the Christian Theology, in faith seeking understanding.

Duke University was crowned United Methodist highest education system in the state of Western NC Conference.

HISTORY OF MOUNT GILEAD

Before the turn of the century, many camp meetings were held at Mount Gilead.

In September, 1802, Mr. W.K. (Kelly) Wall sold to Mount Gilead 1/2 acre of land for $5.00 on which the log church was erected. It was rather small in size. It faced the east with a large chimney in the west end, which burned cord wood. There was a shutter on each side, hung by hand- made hinges. If when open, it wasn't enough light, they used pine knots.

The church was covered with pine shingles which had been split with a froe. The pews were made of slabs, bark side down. I'm told they were very comfortable.

The door was always left open for anyone who wanted to use it. The alter was made of glass. There were stairs up to the balcony. This is where the slaves had to sit. I'm told they were locke in. This part of the church was supported by heavy timbers. This was known as Negro Heaven.

The lecturn was 8 feet tall with 3 steps up to it. It was made out of pine, round like a barrell. It was said to have been a work of art.

Most preachers we could get were circuit riders on horse back and would preach anywhere they could get a few to listen. Most preachers preached on Saturday. Mount Gilead was doing well until the war broke out, when most of the people refused to listen or support a preacher who preached succession. Many people left with only a part of them returning.

Then we had R.W. England, who preached twice and passed away. Trinity then sent student preachers to fill out the year. There was John Welborn, C.D. Durant, Leon White, Rev. Brower and Frank Wood.

After a few years, Jeremiah Craven was let out of the conference with the Commission -- go into the desert and waste places. Hunt the lost sheep and bring them to the fold. He preached in the log church a year. Then in the fall of that year, held a revival and the church was full. So Mr. R.C. Wilborn got permission to sit up in the balcony. He said it was glory to sit up there and see a full church. The right corner was full of young women and girls, all so flowerly dressed and wearing hats. Up in the Amen Corner was old ladies with white lace collars, their bonnets off. Their hair was parted in the middle and combed back slick. Then down to the left were tousled headed boys. Among these were the older boys who had begun to comb and roach their hair.

Over in the other corner was mostly old men, red headed, gray headed and bald headed men. If they wore coats, they were made of linsy jean, a product of the family loom. If without a coat, you saw a flax shirt, with pants held up by galluses. Not much finery but Christians none better could be found.

Rev. Craven came down out of the pulpit and asked if anyone wanted to start a better life. About 15 or so went to the alter. There were enough to fill the alter. There were lots of professions of faith and rededications.

After a while, Mr. George Spencer fell backwards into the arms of John Welborn. He could not speak, just bable. He was overcome with the Holy Spirit. Then after a while, the preacher dismissed the congregation. They prayed with Mr. Spencer, then Mr. Welborn took him home. He was back that night, still bubbling over with the Holy Spirit. Then he began to teach a class at Popular Ridge in the morning and taught a class at Mount Gilead, as services were held there in the afternoon back then. He was a fine, upstanding man, dedicated to the church, community, and his family.

Now Mount Gilead was gaining again.

OUR SECOND CHURCH

On November 9, 1889, W.K. (Kelly) Wall and wife, Mary, deeded to Mount Gilead trustees, four (4) acres of land, for $1.00, joining the 1/2 acre on which the log church sat. These trustees were John Welborn, W.K. Wall, John Walker, W.N. Elder, Martin Wall, T.L. Winslow, and Lewis Steed. These men with help from others in the community, cut enough lumber to build the church. It was sawed at Finch and Thompson Sawmill on Robert Spencers' farm. The lumber was dressed at Lineberry Lumber Plant in Trinity. The church was almost square and seated 200. The benches were slatted and quite comfortable. Boards were hand made, of course. There was a rounded platform at the alter. The alter rails were made of glass. Up a step was where the preacher sat in a large black chair, till his part of the service. The lecturn was rather high. If the preacher was short in statue, all you could see was his hair.

This church was dedicated in 1891. It had two entrance doors, two isles and glass windows.

After the war, Alson Johnson, his brother Lewis, Robert Spencer, Billy Crutchfield, Martin and Kelly Wall, Benjamin Miller, and Nelson Sumner demanded from the Conference a preacher and they got Jeremiah Craven.

Since that time, we have gone through good and some bad times. Around 1920, when the pastor said that this was the last day for Mount Gilead after he finished. My Father arose and said there were services before this pastor came and there would be after he was gone. I might add that there were more there the next Sunday. Mount Gilead has never had a lapse in service.

At one time in early years, the preacher served Trinity, Hope Well, Mt. Vernon, Mt. Gilead, Mt. Pleasant, Mt Sheppard, Piney Grove, and Ebernezer, Tabernacle. The parsonage was in Trinity.

During the hard times, my Father ordered all the literature from David C. Cook and paid for it himself.

Today, the church has added nine (9) Sunday School rooms, two (2) rest rooms, and an enlarged choir loft. Carpet has been added throughout with padded pews and a fellowship hall in the back of the church.

In the 1980's, the church was covered with aluminum siding and doors were put to all class rooms. No record of when the well was bored has been found.

LAY SPEAKERS

In 1958, many trained Lay Speakers participated in a program of No Silent Pulpit During Lent.

Lay Speakers have continued to fill the pulpits on circuits during Lent. In their report of the following year, they had women as laymen. The women should be given increased opportunities and additional places of responsibility in the church.

The United Methodist Church formed 1968, called for a woman on the Conference Board of the Laity. The conference president of the Woman Society of Christian Service (the title at that time). Mrs. W. Frank Redding, Jr. became the first woman of the Board and was the only woman member for that quadrennium. In 1973, other women were associate Lay Leaders.

The age of laypersons has come at last in Methodism.

A PIECE OF VERSES MADE BY A NEGRO

Lord if thou dost with equal eyes
See all the sons of Adam rise
Why dost thou hide thy face from slaves
Confined by fate to serve such knaves
Stolen and sold in africa
Transported to america
Like hogs and sheep in market sold
To stand the heat and bear the cold
To work all day and half the night
And rise before the morning light
Sustain the lash endure the pain
Exposed to storms of snow and rain
Pinch'd both with hunger and the cold
If we complain we meet the scold
Then after all the tedious Round
At night like beasts lie on the ground
Hath heaven decreed the negros must
By cruel men be ever cursed
Forever drag the gauling chain
And never enjoy themselves again
When will Jehovah hear our cries
When will the sons of freedom rise
When will a Moses for us stand
And free us all from pharoahs hand
What tho' our skins be black as jet
Our hair be curled our noses flat

Must we for this no freedom have
Until we find it in the grave
Yet while I thus my fate condole
Jesus my Lord possess my soul
That when my slavery here shall end
I may ascend to thee my friend
Tho' here is none to plead my cause
My soul appeals to thy just laws
Who will bring all things to light
I know thy judgements Lord are right
For all the Comfort that I have
While I am here confin'd a slave
Is that strong hope that I am free
By thy rich blood once shed for me
My soul is free it cant be sold
For all the gold that can be told
And when my body drops in dust
My spirit in thy hand I trust
And tho' no coffin I shall have
Nor yet be laid into a grave
The Lord will watch it from the skies
Till the great trumpet be it rise
Contentment Lord on me bestow
While I remain a slave below
And while I suffer grief and wrong
May thy salvation be my song

OUR DOWN TO EARTH PASTOR

In 1960, we were so blessed to get Charles B. Walker as our Pastor. A local boy, educated at Popular Ridge, Trinity, and a graduate of Duke University.

He could be called our smiling Preacher, for he always had a smile and a kind word.

He is really down to earth, as earth moving is his other vocation. One might say that he had a thrill very few people have experienced. While doing some excavation, he unearthed a jar containing $5,000.00.

He served Mount Gilead and Mount Pleasant well for 21 years.

Charles has a lovely wife, the former Mozelle Smith and three daughters, Ann Allnutt, Debbie Siler, and Janice Allred.

OUR PRESENT PASTOR

Our present pastor, Robert Wiseman, is a Duke student. He and his wife, Lynda have three daughters, Margie, Felicia, and Cassie.

SINGING SCHOOLS

Quit often in the spring, we would have a singing school. Old hymns seem to take on a new sound. They had to be sung just right, especially when the school was taught by J.H. Roubush. He had some like a window shade, with all the notes on it, and was always showing what each note meant.

Mr. Roubush had attended Shenandoah School of Music in Virginia. Ed Miller and R. C. Wilborn had gone to school there also.

Lots of men taught singing at Mt. Gilead; Ed Farlowe, Lee Lanier, A.M. Fentress, John Yakely, Ed Miller and R. C. Welborn.

Mr. R. C. Welborn was away at the school when the church was finished. He came home at Christmas with a sprained ankle and was on crutches. He said he would teach a two week singing school, free of charge, for all who worked on the church.

They took lunches and stayed all day. The church was about half full. It was said that he was a great teacher, as he was very gifted in music. For those of you who do not know it, Mr. Welborn was a brother of Aunt Effie Briles, Uncle John Briles' wife, who was a fine singer herself.

THE BELL

The bell had a sweet harmony to it as it rang for us to go in to school at Popular Ridge, for most of all the school years. Its clear sound could be heard for miles. It was purchased by Uncle John Briles and my Father for the sum of $7.50. It was sold at an auction at Popular Ridge School reunion by my sister, Verda Hughes for $400.00 for Mount Gilead.

OUR CLASSES OF YESTER YEAR

OUR CRADLE ROLL - Teachers were Virgie Sawyer, George Spencer, Benjamin Lanier, Effie Crowson, and Lottie Briles.

MOUNT GILEAD CHURCH #3

Lots of people have revealing dreams and so did Charles Walker. In this dream, the Lord told Charles to build a church. Then he prayed about it. Remember that the prayers of the righteous man availeth much.

Reece Wall and Charles Walker are on the Board of Trustees at John Wesley College. They were ther for a meeting when Charles mentioned his dream to Reese. Right on the spot, Reese promised him the land. It was given by Reese's mother, Lula Wall, Reese and R. D. Wall. There is approximately two acres. Again, Charles' prayers were answered. The ground breaking ceremony was held July 14, 1990.

Today, there stands a fine church almost completed, facing east. It is made of brick and will have stained glass windows, three on each side and three large ones behind the pulpit. It will be carpeted through out the sanctuary and will seat two hundred sixty seven people. There are ten Sunday School rooms, a library, and a pastor's study. It has a double door entrance and two isles.

Again, God answered prayers as the church site is where the Lord told Charles to build. Our church now ownes fifteen acres of land.
